

CERTIFICATE OF OMNIOLOGY

This certificate testifies that I, _____, hold to the belief that all theories of science are open to independent and unrestricted critical review by anyone in pursuit of truth and academic freedom. I therefore accept the title of "Omniologist" and agree to embrace and perpetuate the newly established science of "Omniology" as defined herein. As an Omniologist, I hereby join the intellectual fight against any demeaning form of academic prejudice and/or bias in public or private educational institutions. I will also uphold the spirit of the National Academy of Sciences, April 1976 Resolution • "An Affirmation of Freedom and Inquiry and Expression"

"That the search for knowledge and understanding of the physical universe and of the living things that inhabit it should be conducted under conditions of intellectual freedom, without religious, political, or ideological restrictions... that freedom of inquiry and dissemination of ideas require that those so engaged be free to search where their inquiry leads... without political censorship and without fear of retribution in consequence of unpopularity of their conclusions. Those who challenge existing theories must be protected from retaliatory reactions".

I hereby accept and adopt this credo of Omniology on this _____ month in the year _____.

om•ni•ol•o•gist noun.

one who studies everything and specializes in omniology

om•ni•ol•o•gy noun.

1. the open-minded, unrestricted application of academic freedom in science 2. the science that deals with objective examination and evaluation of all theories of origins. 3. the study and comparison of Creation and Evolution. 4. the study of the interrelationship of all fields of science 5. also called philosophical omniology, the study of the religious nature of all theories of origins and their effect on man.

Henry Johnson

OMNIOLOGICAL SOCIETY • September 18, 1999

Henry Johnson • Professor of Omniology &

Director of the California Institute of Omniology

Oakhurst, California • www.omniology.com

© 1999 • CALIFORNIA INSTITUTE of OMNIOLOGY

National Academy of Sciences
April 1976 Resolution

"An Affirmation of Freedom and Inquiry and Expression"

That the search for knowledge and understanding of the physical universe and of the living things that inhabit it should be conducted under conditions of intellectual freedom, without religious, political or ideological restrictions.... that freedom of inquiry and dissemination of ideas require that those so engaged be free to search where their inquiry leads ... without political censorship and without fear of retribution in consequence of unpopularity of their conclusions. Those who challenge existing theories must be protected from retaliatory reactions.